Zurich or Stuttgart.

Sunday, September 18: Upon arrival in Zurich/Stuttgart, we will be greeted by our Tour Manager. Our bus will take us to the picturesque Black Forest town of Triberg, Germany--famous for cuckoo clocks, Germany's highest waterfall, and the miraculous "Maria in der Tanne" (Mary in the fir tree). The first miracle attributed to Maria in der Tanne occurred in 1644. Our Sunday Mass will be celebrated at the beautiful Maria in der Tanne pilgrimage church, built in 1705. We continue on to Sankt Peter, another picturesque town located in a breathtaking area of the Black Forest. We will be staying for three nights at Haus Maria Lindenberg, a retreat center for the Catholic Archdiocese of Freiburg, Germany, and will have a mini-retreat to close out the day. Overnight Sankt Peter, Germany. Sankt Peter, Germany.

Monday, September 19: We will continue our mini-retreat this morning before we take off to the UNESCO World Heritage city of Strasbourg, France, where we will have a guided tour of the city, including the spectacular "Cathedrale Notre Dame de Strasbourg" and its impressive astronomical clock. Mass will be at the cathedral. On our way back to Haus Maria Lindenberg, we will visit the incredible Abbey of St. Peter, a former Benedictine monastery in the city center of Sankt Peter. Overnight Sankt Peter, Germany.

Tuesday, September 20: We begin again today with a mini-retreat. Then, we travel to the medieval city of Freiburg, Germany, renowned for its university and its own spectacular cathedral, "Freiburger Munster." We will have a guided tour of the city and the cathedral, and our Mass will be at the cathedral. On our way back to Haus Maria Lindenberg, we will have dinner and winetasting at the "Roter Bur" Winery in the Black Forest village of Glottertal to finish out the evening. Overnight Sankt Peter, Germany.

Wednesday, September 21: After breakfast, we will have Mass at the Abbey of Sankt Peter, prior to departing for Lucerne, Switzerland. Our day includes a city tour of Lucerne, including the "Kappellbrucke" (Chapel Bridge--the oldest covered wooden bridge in Europe), as well as the city's Jesuit and Franciscan churches. Our tour of Lucerne includes a ride to the top of Mount Pilatus on the world's steepest cogwheel railway. There may be some leisure time for shopping or to visit Lake Lucerne prior to dinner. Overnight Lucerne, Switzerland.

Thursday, September 22: Departing Lucerne, we travel to Einsiedeln, Switzerland, named for the Einsiedeln hermits who inhabited the area centuries ago. Most famous was "Meinrad of Einsiedeln" (Saint Meinrad), a monk who lived in the 9th Century and was known for his very simple lifestyle and veneration of a miraculous status of the Madonna. We will tour the impressive "Kloster Einsiedeln" (Einsiedeln Abbey, also known as Our Lady of Einsiedeln), which is now a Benedictine monastery, and celebrate Mass here. Departing Einsiedeln, we make our way to the tiny Catholic country of Liechtenstein, where we will have a guided tour of the capital, Vaduz. Continuing on, we conclude our day's travels with a bus trip to Innsbruck, Austria. Overnight Innsbruck, Austria.

Friday, September 23: Our brief stay in Innsbruck concludes with a city tour. Continuing on, we head to the city of Salzburg, Germany, renowned as the birthplace of Mozart and the location of the wonderful motion picture, The Sound of Music. Our visit to Salzburg includes a walking tour of the old town, including the famous Getreidegasse pedestrian street and the "Dom zu Salzberg" (Salzberg Cathedral), where we will celebrate Mass. We conclude our day's travel with a bus trip to Altotting, Germany. Overnight Altotting, Germany.

Saturday, September 24: Today we will have a guided visit and Mass at the Shrine of Our Lady of Altötting. A healing miracle and an extraordinary image of the Virgin Mary triggered a pilgrimage movement to Altötting more than 500 years ago that still attracts over a million pilgrims annually who come to see the "Black Madonna," in the hope that she will hear their prayers. This area of Germany is also the area where Pope Benedict XVI lived and grew up, so we will visit to Marktl am Inn to visit his birthplace and the church of St. Oswald where he was christened. This evening we will attend a candlelit procession at the Basilica of St. Ann. Overnight Altotting, Germany Altotting, Germany

Sunday, September 25: We will celebrate an early Mass in Altotting, prior to departing for Oberammergau, Germany. In 1633, at the time of the 30 Years War, the Black Plague was devastating Europe and causing millions of deaths. The townspeople of Oberammergau made a promise to God they would perform a re-enactment of the life and suffering of Christ every 10 years if God spared their village from any more deaths from the Black Plague. As their village was miraculously saved from any more deaths, Oberammergau's citizens kept their promise by performing their first Passion Play the following year, in 1634. Today the Passion Play is held in a magnificent open-air theater which can seat 4,500 people. The performance consists of two acts; Act 1 is from 1:30 pm to 4:00 pm, followed by a break for dinner. Act 2 is from 7:00 pm to 9:30 pm. Overnight Oberammergau, Germany.

Tuesday, September 27: Our day begins with a tour of the incredible Schloss Neuschwanstein, a castle commissioned by the same King Ludwig III of Bavaria. In the 1950's, Walt Disney designed the Disneyland "Sleeping Beauty" castle after Schloss Neuschwanstein. Afterward, we wi tour "Wieskirche," a spectacular pilgrimage church and UNESCO World Heritage site, also known for its miraculous "Christ in Chains" statue. We will be celebrating Mass at this church. Overnight Munich, Germany.
